

Coach In-Sik Hwang, Head Volleyball Coach of Christian Brothers University and a well-known clinician, will be directing and instructing the camp.

During his tenure at CBU, he has broken several school records for best conference winning percentage and overall winning percentage. Coach Hwang is the only coach in school history to have recruited the GSC Freshman of the Year and have two First Team All Conference players. Since the university moved to NCAA Division II, his squads have set the school's top two kills and assists marks during the last two years.

Before being named head coach at CBU, Hwang was the Director and head instructor for Spike Volleyball Club, an award winning High School Head Coach and an Assistant Coach at Middle Tennessee State University.
